VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JULY 1, 1868. NO. 278

The Daily Sentinel.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

FOREWARNED, FOREARMED.

As the time approaches for the assembling of the Democratic National Convention, the interest manifested by the people grows more absorbing, from the fact that the future hope of the country and the perpetuity of constitutional government on this continent depend upon the success of the nominations to be made there. The Constitution adopted by our Revolutionary Fathers, which secured to us "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," has been ignored by the present Radical faction for the purpose of perpetuating their power. No constitutional guarantee, however sound, is allowed for one moment to stand in their way, in the full exercise of their ill-gotten power. They have destroyed States and created new ones in direct violation of the Constitution, and if their power to work evil continues much longer they will not hesitate to destroy the State governments. Their revolutionary aims will then have been accomplished. It is evident from the signs of the times that the Radicals are determined to carry the election, not by the votes of the people, but by falsifying the returns, which will be a pretence for the present Radical Congress to disregard the wishes of the people at the ballot box, and proclaim whom they please as President or military dictator. They boldly declare that the present Radical Congress will have the counting of the votes, which is virtually declaring that they will elect their candidates at all hazards. This is a subject which the New York Convention should take into consideration, and forewarn the people of the dangers by which they are surrounded, and that they may be forearmed in time to meet the emergency. If constitutional government must perish here, where it has flourished for nearly a century, where can it be maintained? This is a subject worthy the consideration of the American Democracy, who should swear upon the altar of God and their country to maintain the Constitution of their fathers or perish with it. The Convention should take bold and decisive action upon this vital question which animates the hopes of our people, and let this Radical faction understand that the ballot box shall remain pure, and the votes of the people be maintained at every hazard.—Wash. Repress.

A RADICAL CONGRESSIONAL PLOT.—We have information of a plot in contemplation by the Radicals in Congress, which is calculated to startle every reflecting man in the country. It is the purpose and expectation of these Radical conspirators to control the Presidential election per fas aut nefas—They intend, we hear, to elect a President by the House of Representatives, regardless of the popular choice, throwing out votes at discretion where they find them adverse, especially from the South. In all these States they will fabricate votes from spurious electors, and the purpose is that the present House of Representatives shall have the practical control of the matter. In case of a legitimate expression of the popular choice, they do not count on victory; and by the aid of the House of Representatives and the regular army they think to control the matter. General Grant is to be elected by the House, and his sword is to usurp the office of President from the duly elected candidate of the people. Such is the prospect before us if these conspirators shall not be taught to quail before their designs are consummated.—National Intelligencer.

GENERAL HANCOCK AND THE MILITARY COMMISSION.—In justice to General Hancock, whose claims to the Presidential nomination the Record has not seen the propriety of recognizing, we would dispel an illusion in regard to him that is still, we believe, before the eyes of a good many haters of military tyranny. General Hancock was not a member of the commission that sentenced Mrs. Surratt to the gallows. At the time of the "conspiracy" trials General Hancock was in command of the "Middle Military Division," with headquarters at Washington. Orders were issued to him to make such military dispositions as he should consider necessary to maintain order on the day of the execution, which was conducted, we believe, under the supervision of General Hartranft, who had the custody of the prisoners. It was optional with General Hancock to resign his commission rather than carry out the orders he had received. Had he done so, however, the orders would have been carried out all the same by some other officer. General Hancock had no direct connection either with the trial or the execution of Mrs. Surratt.—He simply commanded the department in which the execution took place. We make this statement with no other object than to remove an error into which many persons have fallen.—Metropolitan Record.

The above we clip from the Metropolitan Record, knowing every word of it to be true. We can add that General H., in person, recommended the suspension of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, subsequent to Payne's confession, in which he fully exonerated that lady, and aided her daughter in the attempt to obtain an interview with President Johnson early on the day of the execution. No blame can be attached to General Hancock for this foul murder. His duty forced him to witness the doom of an innocent woman, whose fate he had earnestly striven to avert. Like a soldier, he obeyed; but military discipline was powerless to repress the tears that filled his eyes at the consummation of the atrocious decree of that infamous "Commission." Two of the parties who used their influence with Mr. Johnson to have Mrs. Surratt hung have, by their own hands, gone to meet their Maker; the others directly concerned in this case are ostracised by all decent people, and even B. F. Butler has had the courage to rise on the floor of the House and denounce the hanging of this woman as a cruel murder. The day of retribution is coming! How long, oh, how long, will it be delayed.—Wash. Evening Express.

That able, earnest and unflinching advocate of Conservative principles, the National Intelligencer, in a trenchant article upon the late misgivings of the New York World, closes as follows:

"We repeat that the American people are now terribly in earnest. We are destined to witness such an uprising, such an enthusiasm, such a determination of the people to restore the Constitution as has never been witnessed in this country. Let us prove ourselves worthy of and responsive to these great and generous emotions of the people. We dare not look them in the face with a lie, a sham, a platform which does not go at once to their hearts. We cannot deceive them if we would. We would not deceive them if we could. If this struggle is merely for spoils, we will have none of it. If the crime by which the white race of the South have been put by bayonets under the yoke of the negro be not in issue, then nothing is in issue. If we see that our brother have need and do not help him in his extremity, how can we meet him, or face our own hearts and consciences? If we do not protest against these foul crimes; if we do not, in the most plain and direct language that we can use, declare that these statutes and acts of tyranny are unconstitutional, void, and to be extirpated, then we fail in our duty; we have nothing in common with the great yearnings of the popular heart; we will not deserve victory, and therefore we will not achieve it. But we have full faith and trust in the delegates who are to meet at New York. We shall look to them with great confidence for action that shall mean something more than shams and generalities. Coming fresh from the people, animated by the generous and burning indignation of those who sent them, we do know that they will give forth no uncertain voice. We believe that what they will do and say will be as the peal of a trumpet. The air is full of popular electricity. Everywhere men are burning to wipe out and utterly crush this dastardly, this inexpressibly base, cruel, corrupt dominion of Radicalism. Let our delegates strike, with a will, a good, honest, manly blow for freedom. Never fear the people. They are all right—right in the East, right in the great Central States, right in the giant West, right in the oppressed and suffering South—nowhere more right than among the sons of toil in the great city of New York. Let the word be spoken truly, bravely, and the very first response will make quake with fear the heart of every Radical tyrant in the land. Whether it bring shame to the cheek, or a sickening, deceitful smile to the lips of those who would tamper with the convictions of a great nation, is a small matter. Let it pass."

WILLIAM E. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 1, 1868

THE NEW REGIME.

A dispatch was received in this City, on Monday evening, authorizing the Chief Justice elect of the Supreme Court to qualify at once before a United States Commissioner, and then to administer the oaths of office to the Associate Judges, and afterwards to the Executive officers elect of the State.

Accordingly, we learn that, this morning, the oaths of office will be administered at the Supreme Court room to the Chief Justice and the Associate Justices present, and to the Governor and Lieut. Governor elect, so that the latter may at once take his place as presiding officer of the Senate.

P. S. Gen. Canby, we learn since writing the above, has issued an order, appointing W. W. Holden, Governor of North Carolina, vice Jonathan Worth, removed, and requiring the qualification of Governor, Lieut. Governor, &c., to-day. By making the officers provisional, Gen. Canby, unless he assumes the right to rescind an act of Congress, renders it necessary, according to law, that they should take the test oath! How between Congress and the military, we shall ever reach a regular government, we do not see.

TAX-PAYING REPRESENTATIVES.

It would have been a hypocritical pretence in our revolutionary fathers, if, after their clamor against the British government for refusing the Colonies representation, while it continued to tax them, they had turned and insisted, as Radicals do now, that it is a perversion of Republican principles to require the representatives to pay taxes. Every one would have been ready to spit upon the cry, "No taxation without representation."

This is still held to be a fundamental republican principle, yet the practice of the Radical party, the professed Republican party, has ignored it for years, not only in taking the Southern States and refusing them representation, but in forcing upon them carpet-bag and scallawag representatives, who pay no taxes.

It was a ridiculous feature in the late State Convention, authorized by Congress to form a new Constitution, to settle the principles of taxation and to protect the property of the people of the State, in allowing those great interests to be jeopardied, by placing them under the control of men, black and white, many of whom were either destitute of property themselves, or, at least, paid no taxes for the support of the State.

We learn that Col. Heaton, of Ohio, via Craven, and Gen. Abbott, of New Hampshire, via New Hanover, both representing, in the State Convention, the largest commercial communities of the State,—Gen. Abbott now, also, a member of the House of Representatives from New Hanover, and a candidate for the United States Senate, and Col. Heaton a member elect to the United States House of Representatives and also a candidate for the United States Senate,—neither of them listed or paid any State or county tax for 1867-8. We further learn that Gen. Abbott is the Agent or Superintendent of a large Land Company in Bladen County, and that those lands have not been listed for taxation.

J. R. French, of Washington City, via Chowan, a member of the State Convention from Chowan, and member elect to Congress for the 1st. Congressional District, has neither listed nor paid any tax, nor do the people of that District consider him as having even domiciled among them.

J. T. Deweese, the member elect to Congress from this District, we learn, neither listed nor paid taxes for 1867-68.

A. H. Tourgee, from Ohio, via Guilford, a member of the late State Convention and a Judge of the Superior Court elect, and S. S. Ashley, of Massachusetts, via New Hanover, a member of the late Convention, and Superintendent of Public Instruction elect, we understand, have neither listed nor paid taxes for 1867-68.

These facts are said to be true in regard to many of the Radical members of the State Convention and of the General Assembly, whether white or black. The entire Radical delegation in the present Legislature, in whom the people of this State have been forced to vest the right to tax the people heavily, have paid scarcely any taxes. It is thus that the tax-paying people of North Carolina will still be forced, against their will, to pay taxes, without representation. These men, whatever else they can do, cannot represent the tax paying people of the State; and yet how ready are they to be placed in positions of responsibility, where the property of the State and people are to be hazarded by the control of such men! Will the people of North Carolina long bear this imposition? Will even the colored people of the State jeopard the property of the State by keeping such men in office?

Gov. SEYMOUR spoke forcibly, in his late great speech in New York, upon the negro question. His utterances on that subject may be regarded as an indication that the New York Convention will bring out a white man's candidate upon a white man's platform. In a word, Governor Seymour's speech holds out to us of the South the hope that we are not to be deserted in this our hour of need, but that the friends of republican government in the Northern States will rally under the banner of a candidate who will demand a return to the true principles of the Constitution.

THE LEGISLATURE.—A quorum of both Houses of the Legislature will doubtless be in attendance, to-day.

SUPREME COURT.

In consequence of the telegram elsewhere alluded to, from Gen. Canby, the old and venerated Supreme Court of North Carolina, on yesterday, terminated its labors and its existence.

It has been the pride and the ornament of North Carolina,—the very bulwark of its liberties. Every patriot will indulge the aspiration that the Supreme Court may continue to be in the future, what it has been in the past,—an upright, pure and stainless tribunal, where justice has been impartially administered, and the jurisprudence of the land illustrated and adorned.

We have heretofore expressed our feelings, and what we believe to be the sentiments of our people, towards the retiring member of the Court, the Hon. William H. Battle. He carries with him into private life their grateful regards and highest respect and admiration.

The following are among the closing decisions of the Court:

By PEARSON, C. J.—In Crawford vs. McAdams, from Alamance, demurrer sustained and bill dismissed. In Beard et. al., vs. Hall, from Rowan, no error, judgment affirmed. In State vs. Pulley and Wilkerson, from Person, no error. In Hord vs. Frone, berger and Quinn, from Cleaveland, no error, judgment affirmed.

By BATTLE, J.—In State vs. Holmes, from Edgecombe, no error. In Parish vs. Wilhelm, from Cabarrus, judgment affirmed.—In Little vs. Little, from Mecklenburg, order appealed from affirmed. In Plumer vs. Miller, et. al., from Ashe, plaintiff entitled to a decree, upon amending his bill and paying the amount due the estate of David Miller.

By READE, J.—In Nixon, vs. Bray, from New Hanover, report confirmed and exceptions overruled. In State vs. Starkey, from Beaufort, no error. In Herrin vs. Gaines, from Haywood, injunction dissolved, demurrer sustained and bill dismissed. In Murphy vs. Murphy, from New Hanover, exceptions sustained and report set aside.

MONEY.—The very able article of our Washington correspondent, "B. B." of yesterday, gives the true exposition, doubtless, of the causes which brought on the present conflict, which imperils the government and the liberties of the people. The overgrown wealth of the North and East, in its struggle to maintain the ascendancy of the money barons in the government, first struck at the South and still repeats its blows, and will turn next upon the West.—The conflict is, therefore, a struggle between the money barons of the North and the people. This money power will only accomplish its designs, at the sacrifice of the liberties of the people and the overthrow of the government. Radicalism is its agent to accomplish the work and it must be defeated at all hazards. Through the agency of Radicalism, this money power, so far, has rallied the negroes of the South to its support, who, if it succeeds, will fall under its weight and be crushed by the very power which they have aided.

CHARACTERISTIC.—The demand of the newly admitted Arkansas delegation to Congress for pay from the commencement of the 40th. Congress is in character with all the conduct of the carpet-baggers who infest the South. They are a greedy race, whose principle is selfishness, and whose patriotism is plunder. By making this claim, they repudiate the very proposition upon which their right to seats in Congress is based, viz: that the Southern States, having lost their status by rebellion, were not entitled to representation in Congress, until the door was opened by the Reconstruction programme!

THE PILOT.—The National Intelligencer and the Evening Express, of Washington City, both able papers, but entirely removed from Senatorial proclivities, give countenance to the rumor which prevails about Washington City, that the Radical leaders are so hopeless in regard to the election of Grant and Colfax, that they have become desperate, and determined that, whatever may be the popular vote in November for President, the election shall be decided by the House of Representatives. Two very significant articles from these papers will be found on the first page of to-day's Daily. For months, the Radicals have kept up their courage, by the significant fact, that to the House of Representatives belongs the duty of counting the Presidential vote. The same party role, which has been so successfully carried out in the South, in the late elections, is all that is needed, to enable the House to declare Grant elected, whoever may have obtained the majority of the electoral vote.

REMOVALS IN LOUISIANA BY GEN. GRANT.—New Orleans, June 28.—Gen. Buchanan yesterday received an order from Gen. Grant directing the removal of Gov. Baker and Lieut. Gov. Voorhees, and the appointment of Warmouth and Dana to their places. The appointments take effect on Monday, when the Legislature convenes. In obedience to this order, Gen. Buchanan last night issued an order making the required changes.—The same order authorizes all parish and municipal officers declared elected by his previous orders to take their offices upon taking the oath prescribed by the new constitution. On Monday, Louisiana will have a perfectly black negro for Lieutenant Governor.—Telegram.

The Legislature convened on Monday, and, the test oath being required of members, barely a quorum qualified. A nigger was elected temporary Speaker in the House, and the nigger Lieutenant-Governor presided in the Senate. A majority of the Democrats withdrew.

MISSISSIPPI.—The result in the State is enveloped in a cloud. There seems to be a decided probability that the Democrats have carried the State by a considerable majority, but there appears to be but little doubt that, although this is so, the returns will be manipulated to suit the designs of the Radicals, as they have been elsewhere. Thousands of the negroes in the State voted with the Democrats. One club of three hundred colored Democrats paraded the streets of Jackson, on the first day of the election.

MASONIC CELEBRATION.

BRANDON, June 24th, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—The 24th. day of June, time-honored throughout the Masonic world as the natal day of its patron Saint, has again rolled around, calling together in true brotherly love all worthy members of the mystic tie, in their various Lodges, for the special purpose of installing officers for the ensuing year. Hundreds of thousands throughout the civilized world, this day, ignoring all the petty passions and prejudices incident to human nature, and invested with the high and holy principles of Masonry—the hand-maid of religion—have cast aside dull care, and with the noble impulses of Faith in God, Hope in the future, and Charity to all, have knelt at the foot-stool of Masonry, worshipped at the shrine of Purity and Fidelity, and drank from the limpid stream of Heaven-born Brotherly Love. Though shut out from public gaze and screened from curiosity's piercing eye; though their councils and deliberations are under the seal of secrecy, and all without the pale of its sanctuary are in the most profound ignorance of its ancient forms and ceremonies; yet the outside world is made to feel and acknowledge its blessings, to honor it for its true devotion to its principles, and even to unite in spirit—if not in form—in the grand festivities of this the natal day of St. John the Baptist.—This, the annual Jubilee of the fraternity, is hailed with joy and pride wherever the Masonic footstep makes its imprint, opens the floodgates of the human heart and touches the key notes which vibrate and pour forth in richest melody the sweet strains of Fidelity to each other, Sympathy for all, and unbounded Love for the Supreme Grand Ruler of the Universe—the Protector of Masonry on Earth and the Grand High Priest in Heaven.

This day the fires of Masonry have been blazing anew in the breasts of all its votaries, by ever-living sparks emitted from the ever-burning altar of the Grand Lodge above, and reflecting back, in one bright halo of Masonic light, undiminished love for the Order, holy remembrance of its patron Saint, and unbounded reverence to God.

With increased ardor and zeal for the promotion of the interest of our Ancient Institution, the Members of Franklin Lodge, No. 109, A. F. M., met at their Hall, at 8 P. M., when a blessing from the Most High was asked for in an appropriate prayer by Rev. Bro. Utley, after which followed the initiation of officers, by P. M. W. J. Potter:

T. P. Whitney, W. M.
R. E. Walker, S. W.
J. A. Hedrick, J. W.
H. H. Willis, Treas.
W. C. King, Sec'y.
G. W. Charlotte, S. D.
W. Fred. Piver, J. D.
W. Howard Piver, Tyler.
J. L. Gibble and D. W. Jones, Stewards.

After the ceremony of installation and the benediction by Rev. Bro. Utley, the Lodge was closed, and the members retired, each feeling more deeply impressed with the beauties and grandeur of Masonry, and more fully inspired with its sublimity and truth.

W.

THE RADICAL DEFEAT IN MISSISSIPPI.—It would appear that the carpet bag Constitution has been defeated in Mississippi—and by the opposition of colored voters. This happens too late for the radicals in Congress to stop their omnibus, and take in Mississippi by an enabling clause, similar to the one which overruled the will of a majority of voters in the case of Alabama, and decreed the adoption of the carpet bag Constitution in the latter State by a minority vote. If they expect to use Mississippi in the Presidential election, they must pass a separate bill to establish the carpet-bag organization which they need for that purpose. But here the question occurs, can they depend upon the colored vote in Mississippi going for Grant? If the carpet-baggers failed to carry their Constitution by reason of the opposition of colored voters, is there not still stronger probability that they will fail to carry the Grant radical ticket in that State by reason of the same opposition? We can come to no other conclusion when we consider that in the Presidential election the negroes will have no direct and peculiar interest involved, as they had in the recent election to decide upon a Constitution which was carefully scaped to win their votes by appealing to their sense of interest and hope of aggrandizement. And this suggests a question of still wider scope and still graver import for the President-making legislators at Washington. Can they count, with comfortable assurance, on the adequate support of their Presidential ticket by the colored voters in Louisiana, Alabama or Georgia, or any other State lugged in under a carpet-bag Constitution, since the colored vote of Mississippi has so disappointed their expectations? While the omnibus bill was yet under discussion, one of the radical journals in the North strongly objected to it that it would afford no such assurance, but, on the contrary, would give the Democrats an opportunity to turn against the radical candidate the very engine invented to hoist him into the Presidency. It certainly cannot be said, seeing what has just been done by colored voters in Mississippi, that such an apprehension is wholly groundless. Let the radical omnibus drivers put this in their pipes, and smoke and pepend with a gravity suited to the prospect.—N. O. Crescent.

AN ENTERPRISE WORTHY OF GEN. LEE.—The Trustees of Washington College at their recent meeting passed a resolution constituting Gen. Lee, and Professors Nelson, Allen, McCulloch and Campbell, a Board of Survey, charged with the duty of gathering exact information of the geography, mineral resources, industry, and natural history of the South, and particularly of the State of Virginia, and to publish the same for the use and benefit not only of the institution in its instruction, but of the country generally. Accurate topographical maps of the several counties of Virginia will be published, accompanied by such information of their agricultural, mineral, and other wealth as cannot fail to be of great value and interest alike to their institution and to the public generally. And to this will be added the publication of such information on important regions beyond the limits of the State, and on special subjects of scientific and practical interest to the country, as their means and facilities shall permit.

Gen. Lee is the evident originator of this giant enterprise, and it fitly illustrates his anxious love for his venerable mother-state. His name is a guarantee for the fidelity and success of the scheme. But it will require means to accomplish a labor so extensive.—Expenditures for publication and exploration will be great. The Board, therefore, with a modesty peculiar to its chairman, invokes the co-operation of all who feel an interest in such matters.

A larger proportion of Northern blacks than of Southern blacks fought in the Federal armies during the war. Yet the Chicago Convention claims that the right of suffrage is due to the Southern blacks on the score of gratitude, whilst no such claim is set up in behalf of the Northern blacks.—Louisville Jour.

"Punch says the spirit of the age is gin." Not a bit of it, unless you spell "gin" backwards.

A POOR JOB.

Now that Congress has "admitted" the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, North Carolina, and South Carolina, we have a few questions to ask:

1. Is the Army to be withdrawn?
2. Is the Freedmen's Bureau to be discontinued?
3. Is it safe for Northern men to move there?
4. Will investment pay?

To all of which we can only answer, No. The army will not be withdrawn, because these rotten governments, begotten of the bayonet, would fade into nothingness were the bayonet but once taken away. The Bureau will not be discontinued, because the negroes, into whose hands these States have been committed, need that institution in order to feed them, make their contracts for them, and teach them their a b c. It is not safe for Northern men to move there, because the great majority of Northern voters are disfranchised there, and, even if they were not, there is the ever-present danger of a war of races. Investment will not pay because carpet-bag government bankrupts States.

TO LAND OWNERS.

HAVING BEEN APPOINTED, BY THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURAL AND MINERAL LAND COMPANY, Agent for all that part of North Carolina lying east of and including Catawba County, I am authorized to say, to any person or persons having 2,000 acres in one body, partially cleared and near a Rail Road, that if they will subdivide their lands the Company will purchase alternate lots at their assessed value for taxation or as ascertained by two disinterested parties, paying for the same in the Company's stock—the Company obligating itself to place a white settler on every 200 acres, so acquired, within three years, or, failing to do so, such land unsettled to revert to the original owner; the owner to retain possession until the land is settled.

The object of this system is to bring into the State an industrious and thrifty population and to enhance the value of our lands. It has been adopted in other States and is said to be working finely.

This Company was chartered by our Legislature of 1866. Land owners will please address me for particulars at Reidsville, N. C.

Wake Forest College, N. C,

THE FALL TERM OF THIS INSTITUTION will open on the first day of August, 1868, with the prospect of increased patronage and success. The complete a surance given at the recent Commencement of the adaptedness of the University system to the wants of the times, and of its feasibility, encourages its friends to believe that the College has entered upon a career of popularity and usefulness hitherto unknown in its history. The financial embarrassments to which all Southern Colleges have been subjected are not felt to the same extent at Wake Forest, as at some others, in consequence of the considerable amount of original endowment saved, and of the favorable reception with which the Agent of the College meets in securing additional funds. An expenditure of more than $2,000 has been recently made in improving the condition of the building and grounds.

Determined to bring its advantages within reach of the largest number possible, the Trustees, seconded by the community, have reduced the price of Board and Tuition to the lowest practicable rates.

The officers of instruction are gentlemen of tried ability in their several departments, and the success attending their efforts in the past is the best guarantee the public can have for the future.

The location of the College in point of healthfulness and accessibility, (being situated on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, a few miles from the Capital of the State,) is not surpassed by that of any other in the land; while the moral and social influences connected with and surrounding it, and the peculiar discipline enforced, present inducements to patronage of no ordinary kind.

A system of PUBLIC LECTURES on literary and scientific subjects has been introduced, with a view to increase the interest of the young men in the several departments of study, and to furnish additional incentives to investigation and research.

Extensive and well selected LIBRARIES belonging to the Societies, and complete APPARATUS, PHILOSOPHICAL and CHEMICAL, are not to be omitted in the enumeration of the advantages possessed.

Another encouraging feature is that there are, at present, thirteen young men engaged in studies preparatory to the work of the Ministry; and it may not be amiss to state that any Minister, who may apply for admission, will receive tuition in all the departments free of charge, and those of this class, who are without means, are encouraged to apply to the Board of Education for further assistance.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 1, 1868.

DEATH OF EDMUND B. FREEMAN, ESQ.

The venerable and excellent man, whose name heads this paragraph, departed this life, at his residence in this City, on yesterday, after a illness of only three or four days' duration. The announcement will cause deep regret throughout the State,—for few men were more generally known and esteemed.

Mr. Freeman had attained the advanced age of 73 years, and his life was as useful as it was protracted. He had filled many positions of trust and responsibility, and it may be said of him, with entire truthfulness, that he was competent, honest and faithful in every public duty which he was ever called upon to discharge.

He was for thirty-five years the Clerk of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.—There never was a more efficient and universally acceptable officer. The Judges of the Court had the most exalted opinion of his eminent integrity and capacity, and the Profession, with which he was brought into constant and close relations, had, not only the most implicit confidence in him and regard for him, as an officer, but, also, affection for him as a man. It is a very remarkable and touching co-incidence, that he should have died on the very day, and almost at the identical hour, that the old Supreme Court of North Carolina,—which he had served so long and faithfully, and of whose name and honor he was proud, to a degree that had made the fact a proverb,—ended its existence. Felix opportunitate mortis. Could the good and well tried old Clerk have had the choice of the day of his departure from the scenes of earth, he could not have selected one more fitting or more signally appropriate.

Mr. Freeman was a man of much more than ordinary ability. He was possessed, indeed, of a remarkably clear intellect and rare powers of discrimination. His heart was large and generous. Few men were ever blessed with a kinder, more tolerant, or more loving spirit and temper. Genial, ever cordial and affable, the friend of old and young, a model gentleman of the olden time, in all the kindly elements of our nature, he goes to the grave mourned and lamented by this community, in which he had lived so many years and to whose interests he was so much attached.

The funeral will take place from the Episcopal Church, this afternoon, at 5 o'clock.

MEETING OF MEMBERS OF THE BAR!—There will be a meeting of the members of the Bar, this morning, at 11 o'clock, at the Supreme Court Room, for the purpose of suitably commemorating the death of the late Edmund B. Freeman, Esq.

MASONIC NOTICE.—R. W. Best, Esq., Grand Master of Masons of N. C., requests all Masons now in the City, to meet at the Masonic Hall, this afternoon, at 4 o'clock, for the purpose of attending the funeral of Past Junior Grand Warden Edmund B. Freeman.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—See announcement of "State National Bank of Raleigh."

The third session of Vine Hill Academy, Scotland Neck, (J. M. Lovejoy, Principal,) will commence on the 10th. inst.

W. S. Mason, Esq., Commissioner, in pursuance of a decree in Equity of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, will sell at the Court House door, in this city, on the 17th. day of August, certain valuable Real Estate, particularly described in the advertisement.

Professor Lamm, of the Misses Nash and Miss Kollock's School, Hillsboro, proposes to give instruction in vocal and instrumental music. See his card.

Messrs. W. B. Astea & Co., No 25, Pearl Street, N. Y., advertise Grain and Flour Sacks. They can furnish Grain Sacks of all sizes and qualities. Cotton and Paper Flour Sacks printed to order, &c.

CONFINED IN JAIL.—The Johnston Co. house-burners (two negro men and an abandoned white woman,) were brought to this City, on yesterday, and lodged in the County jail.

ARMY ORDERS.—An order from Gen. Grant relieves from duty, in the Second Military District, the following officers, who have been in this city, on a General Court-Martial, for some time, viz: Brevet Col. A. E. Drake, Captain U. S. A., and 1st Lieut. H. L. Pike, U. S. A.

MRS. JUDITH ELLIS, the venerable mother of the late Gov. Ellis, died at her residence, near Holtsburg, Davidson County, on the 26th. ult., in the 80th. year of her age.

DAILY SENTINEL FOR THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Sentinel will be furnished, daily, to subscribers only for the session, at $1 per month. Members of the General Assembly will be supplied on the same terms, at their rooms or desks. The paper cannot be afforded for less, in view of the cost of reporting. It will only be sent during the session to those who order it and pay in advance.

Our regular subscribers will continue to be furnished at former rates: $4 for six months and $8 for the year.

FRIENDS OF TEMPERANCE.—The following officers were elected at the last meeting of "Oak City Council," for the half year ending December 31st., 1868: President, Theo. H. Hill; Ex-President, J. A. Collins; Associate, W. J. Watson; Secretary, J. B. Martin; Financial Scribe, Geo. W. Pentress; Treasurer, Joseph Alexander Harris; Conductor, M. J. Broughton; Assistant Conductor, J. J. Howell; Inside Sentinel, T. K. Wait; Outside Sentinel, E. H. Ray; Chaplain, R. H. Whitaker.

THE CITY is crowded with strangers,—the various Hotels and Boarding-houses being well filled. Outside of the members of the Congressional Legislature, nine out of every ten of the new-comers are applicants for office. Their name is legion, and every one of them is equipped with a—carpet-bag.

TRINITY COLLEGE.—We are under obligations to a friend for a Catalogue of Trinity College for 1868. It is very neatly printed at the Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and the Blind, and furnishes full information on all points of interest connected with this excellent College. The next session commences Aug. 5th., and we are gratified to learn that the prospects of the College are of a most flattering character. Under its present management, it ranks with the first Institutions in the country.

THE TROOPS, recently composing the garrison at Wilmington, have been ordered to Smithville. Maj. Upham, the Post Commandant, will continue to make the city his headquarters, but will remain there without a Corporal's guard, in the discharge of his duties. The Wilmington papers deprecate the removal of the troops. Their presence is deemed necessary to suppress the spirit of lawlessness which has recently cropped out among the negroes in that city.

STATE NATIONAL BANK OF RALEIGH.—It will be seen, by the announcement in another column, that a new Bank, bearing this name, has been organized, in this City, in pursuance of the Act of Congress and under the proper license from the Treasury Department. The President of the Bank, John G. Williams, Esq., is well known as a gentleman of large financial experience, and the Cashier, Col. W. E. Anderson, as the excellent Teller, for many years, of the Bank of North Carolina. We have no doubt that the new institution, under its efficient management, will be accommodating in its dealings with the public. Raleigh has now two Banks conducted on an extensive and liberal scale.

SOCIAL EQUALITY.—Judging from what is visible on the streets, the Radicals elect to the Legislature have made considerable progress in "social equality," with their colored allies, since the "Konvenshun" adjourned. "No discrimination on account of color" is perceptible, where the crowds most do congregate. This is consistent, "loll"—and Radical. We have nothing to say against it.

THE "LAND WE LOVE" for July contains fifteen articles from the best writers of the South. Comparative Generalship is the first of two articles on Grant's military career. The causes of "Decay of Religion at the South" are treated in a masterly manner. "Cicero's Oration for Marcellus" is a sprightly classical article over the well known nom de plume of S. L. C. Dr. Ramsey completes his interesting history of the revolt of the State of Franklin. Prof. Blake furnishes one of his best agricultural articles on "Lime as a Fertilizer." Miss Porter gives a pleasant story. The poetry is from Mrs. Preston, of Virginia, Mrs. Daviess, of Kentucky, Mrs. Clarke, of North Carolina, and the lamented Henry Timrod, the last piece ever written by him.

"THE GOVERNOR ELECT."—It is said that the "Governor elect" will deliver an Inaugural Speech in Capitol Square, on Saturday, the 4th. inst.

THE CHARLOTTE Democrat expresses the opinion that, when the Legislature meets, it would be creditable to that body, if it were to petition Congress to relieve those members who are proscribed. This is so. There are some among the majority who can and will rise to the level of this magnanimity and fairness, but we apprehend the number will be comparatively inconsiderable.

An Arkansas gentleman writes: "The entire delegation from our State, together with the 99 out of every 100 elected to local offices in the State, are carpet-baggers.—Rice is the solitary exception. He is a "saddle-bagger" from Kentucky, New York, Iowa, Minnesota, and Michigan. McDonald is from Connecticut, Illinois, Missouri, and Kansas. Hinds is from Wisconsin and a market. Roots and Boles are from every where. I have frequently wondered if the peddling politicians from other Southern States are of the same class of men as ours. Ours all had been characters where they came from, and the fewest number of them can return without being arrested for larceny, bigamy, passing counterfeit money, cheating by false pretences, etc. Yet they have all concentred in Congress, and Congress is all concentred in them."

ARKANSAS AND MILITARY RULE.—Gen. Schofield has officially informed Gen. Grant of the passage of the Arkansas admission bill and the admission of Congressmen from that State. On this information Gen. Grant will issue an important order, directing Gen. McDowell to withdraw as far as possible the military control over the State, and when finally the civil government is fully established, withdraw it altogether, except so far as it may be retained at the request of the civil authorities.—Forney.

For the Sentinel.

BAPTIST SABBATH SCHOOL EXCURSION.

Having been honored with an invitation to accompany the "Raleigh Baptist Sunday School," on their Pic Nic excursion to Hillsboro, which came off on the 26th., your correspondent availed himself of it, and, as the occasion was of such a pleasant character, with your permission, Messrs. Editors, I have have concluded to dot down a short account of the trip, premising that it was one of the most agreeable of its kind, that it has been my good fortune to participate in 'for lo! these many years.

At half past 5 o'clock, on Friday morning, the ringing of the bell gave notice that the time had arrived for the children to get themselves in readiness for assembling at the Church, and, notwithstanding the weather was a little threatening, six o'clock found about three hundred happy, smiling little ones ready to join in the procession that was then formed under the auspices of Mr. P. P. Pescud, as Chief Marshal, and marched to the Depot of the N. C. R. R. (the dray-loads of goodies and substantials having been sent in advance to the cars.) The procession, with its appropriate banners, presented quite an imposing appearance, illuminated as it was by the beaming faces of the girls and boys, all radiant with the anticipation of the joys of the day.

Arriving at the Depot, we found a train of some six or eight commodious cars, to which was attached that noble engine, "Thomas Webb," with Mr. Joe Green as Engineer and Mr. E. R. Williams as Conductor. Permit me to say that the care and polite attention of these gentlemen, during the day, was highly appreciated and duly acknowledged. For all these favors many were the expressions of thanks to the President, Superintendent, and others of this Road. We know the remuneration received cannot pay in the ordinary acceptation of that term, yet we hope the amount given at least defrayed the cost of the trip to the Company. The liberal managers of that Road seem to understand that Railroads, like other institutions, sometimes require a portion of the good-will of the public, as well as all of its dollars, either to deserve or achieve success.

The children being all seated and proper care being taken to prevent accidents, at 7 o'clock the whistle sounded, and off we went, with a merry shout from the children. Getting well under way, the cars were made to resound with the happy voices of the little ones, assisted by the older, in singing many beautiful hymns. Arriving at Morrisville, we halted about twenty minutes to allow the mail train to pass, and with some addition to our number, we proceeded, stopping at Durham's to permit the freight train to take the track; after which we started again for Hillsboro, and you can better imagine, than I can describe, the enthusiasm of the little ones, as the time approached for us to reach the point of destination.

About ten o'clock the whistle sounded notice that we were near the point to leave the train and meet our Hillsboro friends.—Every eye was directed to the north windows of the coaches, and distinctly visible, some two hundred yards distant, on an eminence, could be seen the Sunday School of the Baptist Church, with its Pastor, teachers and citizens, waiting to receive and welcome us. The train stopped, and but a few moments were required for all hands to leave the cars,—whereupon, a procession was formed and marched in regular order to the crest of the hill, where we were received and welcomed on one of the most beautiful and romantic spots I ever beheld, being the summer residence of the Hon. M. E. Manly. This is, indeed, a delightful place, being situated on a high hill, in a grove, surrounded by trees and shrubbery, both native and foreign, and at the base runs the Eno river, separating it from the town.

Before dispersing, the children were addressed by the Marshal, Mr. Pescud, Mr. Palmer and the Rev. Dr. Pritchard, in short and appropriate speeches, and then they sang two beautiful hymns, selected for the occasion. They were then permitted to ramble at pleasure, and many were the pleasant walks in the grove and along the river bank, and no one can doubt, for a moment, that the beauty of the surroundings could but inspire sentiment in the hearts of many of the participants. I might mention instances, but forbear. The intervening hours were employed by the Committee in arranging for dinner, which was accomplished without much difficulty, as three large tables had been erected by the Committee from Hillsboro, who had anticipated every want necessary to promote our enjoyment.

Just here, permit me to return a vote of thanks to Rev. Mr. Gaultney, Pastor, and Messrs. Cheek, Strowd, Blackwood, and others of the Baptist Church, for their very efficient efforts in contributing to the enjoyment of all on that occasion.

The tables were made to groan beneath the weight of goodies and more substantial eatables, which had been prepared for the occasion. It had been previously made known that the older persons were to stand back until all the children had been waited upon, and, as this was generally understood, at one o'clock dinner was announced, when there was a rush, and, you may be sure, full justice was done. I cannot forbear to mention that just at this time was seen ascending the Hill, with her contributions, the gifted lady of Ex. Gov. Graham, whose name was familiar, even to the smaller children. She had, by her many excellencies, endeared herself to the Parents and Teachers, during her residence in Raleigh. Dinner being over, social intercourse and jollity prevailed until 3 o'clock, when a procession was formed and marched to the town, and through some of the principal streets, to the Masonic Lodge, in the shaded yard of which the children were allowed to rest on the green sward. After resting a few moments, several pieces were sung. Rev. Mr. Gaultney then addressed them, expressing the gratification and pleasure of himself and school in this mingling together, and hoping it might result in good by increasing the interest felt in Sunday Schools. At the conclusion of which, the "Infant Class" sung a difficult, but beautiful, piece, in a manner which would have reflected credit on older heads.

Too much credit cannot be given to that estimable lady, Mrs. D——, for the indefatigable care and attention she has bestowed upon this class for several years—the benefits of which have been and are manifest to all observers. In addition to the evidences of her good accomplished here, eternity alone, will reveal the full fruition of her labors.

After spending an hour so pleasantly in the town, we were admonished that the time had arrived for us to return, and the procession was formed and we were soon again at the beautiful grove, which all were loth to leave. Then came the interchanging of parting salutations, and preparations for returning home;—the train being in readiness to receive us. A few minutes past 5 o'clock we bid adieu to our friends and left with many pleasant memories of the day. We arrived at home at 7 o'clock, feeling thankful to a kind Providence that not an accident or unpleasant incident occurred to mar the happiness of the day. I cannot conclude without speaking of the Committee of Arrangements, who discharged their duties so well. Mr. Pescud, the Chief Marshal, as well as his assistants, also deserve mention for the faithful performance of their duty. L.

MISSISSIPPI ELECTION.

JACKSON, MISS., June 30, M.

At the close of the second day's election, the Radical majority in this county was 616; where there is a registered negro majority of 1,700. The election will not close throughout the State for several days. Full returns have been received from but few counties. Some of the Radical strongholds are heard from. The majority for the Democrats to this time is 12,785.

The Radical newspaper at this place says that, in all the counties where the Democrats have received majorities, the election must be declared illegal and void, although there is not a single outrage known to the public.

The official organ of the Radical party, in this State, has suspended publication.

The polls at Vicksburg were kept open till ten o'clock, on Saturday night, by McDowell, against the earnest protest of the citizens.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM NEW ORLEANS—LEGISLATURE—TEST-OATH.

NEW ORLEANS, June 30, P. M.

When the Senate met, this morning, only the names of the nineteen Radicals who took the test oath, yesterday, were called.

Sambalo (Democrat) remarked that his name had not been called, and informed the Chair that he was present.

The Chair replied that there were other gentlemen present, whose names were not called, who had not interrupted the business of the Senate.

While the minutes were being read, Jewell, of Orleans, arose and demanded that a communication from the Commanding General, which he knew was in the possession of the presiding officer, relative to the oath to be taken by the Senators, be read before any other business be transacted.

No attention was paid to the demand.

After some difficulty, order was restored. The Secretary finished reading the minutes.

The Chairman of the Committee on elections reported that Hugh J. Campbell, a Republican, was entitled to a seat as Senator, from the second District, in place of Anthony Gombald, (Democrat,) declared elected by General Buchanan—the Committee saying in their report, that Gen. Buchanan had no right to change the return of registrars; thus directly charging the commanding General with fraud.

On motion that Campbell be sworn in, all the votes were cast in the affirmative.

Campbell took his seat, giving the Radicals 20 present.

No Democratic member could obtain recognition from the chair.

The proceedings in the House were pretty much of a similar stripe.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 30, P. M.

SENATE.—A resolution from the Texas Reconstruction Convention, narrating disorders and murders in that State, was referred to the Military Committee.

Thomas W. Osborne, as Senator from Florida was seated—33 to 6.

The civil appropriation bill was resumed, and discussed to adjournment.

HOUSE.—Several purely political motions referring to the Finance, were introduced and discussed without definite action.

The evident object of the Republicans is to make the Finance a paramount question in the approaching contest—ignoring or making a secondary condition of "the South," under the reconstruction acts.

The credentials of the Florida Representatives were referred to the Election Committee.

A joint resolution to adjourned on the fifteenth of July passed—91 to 47.

FROM WASHINGTON—DELEGATES EN ROUTE TO THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

WASHINGTON, June 30, P. M.

Members and Southern delegates continue passing Northward.

The crowd at the White House, to-day, was too large for pointed conversation, but the Delegates found an opportunity to say a word in condemnation of the harsh treatment of the Columbus, Georgia, citizens, imprisoned at Atlanta, by Gen. Meade.

The sentiments of the Southern delegates give a glow to Hancock's prospects, though the under current for Chase is quite strong.

Grant has departed Westward with his family. Gen. Rawlins officiates during Grant's absence.

The Senate had an Executive session, but did nothing. Action of any kind, in an Executive way, until after the 4th of July nomination, is improbable.

The Senate tabled the House resolution to adjourn on the fifteenth proximo.

FROM SAVANNAH.

SAVANNAH, June 30, P. M.

Lt. Col J. P. Martin, of the United States army, lost a considerable amount at Faro. He had the gambler arrested by the military and confined in the Barracks. The prisoner's counsel was denied admittance.

The counsel then took out a warrant to arrest the Colonel, on the charge of playing and betting at Faro.

The military refused the right of the civil authorities to arrest. The prisoner was afterwards taken under guard to consult his counsel.

FROM GEORGIA.

SAVANNAH, June 30, P. M.

The Savannah Bar adopted a resolution, today, requesting Judge Fleming to adjourn the superior Court until the next term, on the ground that the changes occurring in the political condition of the State may have serious effects upon the judicial system.

FROM ATLANTA—TRIAL OF THE COLUMBUS PRISONERS.

ATLANTA, June 30, P. M.

Sixteen cars left for Milledgeville, this morning to remove the furniture of the State Capitol to Atlanta.

The Court, for the trial of the Columbus prisoners, met this morning at ten A. M.

Ex-Gov. Brown and three associates appear for the prosecution; Hon. Alex. H. Stephens and others for the defence. Mr Stephens entered a plea to the jurisdiction of the Court, on the ground of its military character.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, June 30, P. M.

Cars and steamers are leaving here to-day, crowded with visitors to the New York Convention.

Ellsea, Anderson, Patterson and Goldman, the convicted revenue officers, left on a steamer, today, for Albany, to serve out their term.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $9,000,000.

No. POLICIES 52,700.

DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $1,881,768,51.

DIVIDENDS, 50 per cent.

In these days of competition between Life Insurance Companies, much is said by rival Agents, each claiming the Company he represents to be the best. Without saying anything in disparagement of any Company, or, by simple assertion, anything in its favor, the ÆTNA begs leave to refer to the annexed table, compiled from the OFFICIAL and sworn statements of twenty of the largest Companies in America, made to the Insurance Commissioners of the State of New York. The table shows the ratio of expense to each $100 received by each Company, for the three years ending January 1, 1868.

It will be seen that the expenses of the Ætna are much lower than any other Company; and, after the average is struck, the ÆTNA, in 1865, saved $10.41 out of each $100 received—more than the average; in 1866, $7.17, and in 1867, $4.90. The receipts of the ÆTNA were, in 1865, $1,655,309; in 1866, $3,522,376, and in 1867, $3,120,447. Consequently, its savings in the three years were $677,919.-39, to which add 7 per cent. interest to July 1, 1868: $120,388.64, making a grand total of $797,307 03 saved over the average of all other Companies.

This is the measure of success, as applied by the Hon Elizur Wright, the greatest of American actuaries, to all Companies, and simply means that the Company whose RATIO of expense to its income is the least, is the best able to pay large dividends to its policy holders. That the ÆTNA is THAT Company, these comparisons of official statements plainly show.

Official Statement showing the Expenses and Losses by the Twenty Largest Insurance Companies in America.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 1, 1868.

A PERSIAN LEGEND.

BY JOHN G. SAXE.

The Calif Hassan on the fair is tried—
To honors opulent and rich in gold.
On New Year's day sat in a palm tree's shade,
And had a store that lay beside him, made
An inventory—naming one by one
His benefactions; all that he had done
Throughout the year; and thus the items ran:
"Five bags of gold for mosques in Ispahan;
For caravans to Mecca seven more;
For seven ets to pious people, four;
Three for the Ramazan; and two to pay
The holy Dervishes who threw a day
In prayer beneath the safety of my soul;
Item, one loaf of bread, a weekly dole
To a poor widow with a sickly child."
The Calif read the reckoning o'er and smiled
With conscious pleasure at the vast amount,
When lo! a hand sweeps over the account!
With sudden anger, Hassan looked around,
And saw an Angel standing on the ground,
With wings of gold, and robe of purest white!
"I am God's messenger employed to write,
Within this book the pious deeds of men;
I have revised thy reckoning—look again,
So to the man the Angel spake aloud,
Then slowly vanished in a rosy cloud.
The Calif, looking, saw upon the stone
The final item standing there alone!

MAKING A "V."—A story is told of an auctioneer, who was provokingly annoyed, while in the exercise of his profession, by the ludicrous bids of a fellow whose object seemed to be to make sport of the buyers, rather than buy himself. At length, enraged beyond endurance, the knight of the ivory hammer, looking around the room for a champion to avenge his wrongs, fixed his eyes upon a biped of huge dimensions, a very monarch in strength, and cried out:

"Marlow, what shall I give you to put that fellow out?"

"I take one five dollar bill."

"Done; you shall have it."

Assuming the ferocious knitting in his brows, spreading his nostrils like a lion's, and putting on the wolf all over his head and shoulders, old Marlow strode off to the aggressor, and, seizing the terrified wretch by the collar, said to him in a whisper that was heard all over the room:

"My good friend, you go out with me, I give you half the money."

"Done! done!" said the fellow.

"Hurrah! hurrah!" shouted the audience.

The auctioneer had the good sense to join in the laugh, and coolly forked out the V.

LOUD.—A man lately went to the post office, and, putting his nose close to the delivery box, cried out:

"Louder."

The clerk, supposing the man to be deaf, and that he was requesting him to speak louder so that he could hear, asked him in a loud tone the name of the party for whom he wanted the letter.

"Louder!" cried the man.

"What name?" yelled the clerk.

"Louder!" again bawled the man, who now supposed the clerk to be deaf.

The clerk took a long breath, and with all his might again bellowed out in the man's face the same question—

"What name?"

This was done in so loud a tone that the echo seemed to return from the far off hills. The man started back in alarm, shouting at the very top of his big lungs, "Louder, sir; Louder! I told you Louder; my name is nothing else."

BLACKBERRY WINE.—Now is the time to make this excellent wine. The fruit is just coming to perfection, and can be had for a very moderate consideration, so that the wine may be prepared at a small cost. It is not only an excellent and innocent beverage, but is highly medicinal, and no family, who can make it, should permit the season to pass without putting up a full supply. If the annexed recipe is followed, the wine will be of excellent quality:

"Take any quantity of berries, let them be full ripe, but not sour or stale; bruise them and press out all the juice. To each gallon of the clear liquid add a quart of cold water and two pounds of good sugar. Put it aside in a cool place with a vent hole in the vessel to permit the escape of gas, until October, when decant and bottle."

MEN'S, BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S HATS,

Ladies, Men and Children's Shoes, why if you step at Creech's you will surely be suited in style, quality and price.

I told the people, some time ago, that there was no House in the City that could or would sell goods cheaper than I, and now I intend to keep my word. I said then what I meant, and now mean what I say. So don't fail to come to CREECH'S, on R. Smith's corner.

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;
Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;
The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;
The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;
The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;
The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;
Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.
The principal markets will be regularly published.
Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.
Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.
Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.
It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and, if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.
Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.
Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.
The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.
Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.
The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.
When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties,

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.
No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
